YOUR SAFETY COMES FIRST

Remember that the access modes (maximum number of people in the trail for each single lap, specific vehicles, etc.) may vary depending on the type of ride. Therefore, we inform you that our Staff must always evaluate whether the configuration of seats and holding devices or the evacuation procedures in case of emergency enable you to use the ride in total safety or not. Whenever any of these essential safety conditions are not granted, you may be forbidden to access the ride. If your disability cannot be seen, please point it out to us. Even though our Staff are prepared, they cannot know your health condition unless you provide such information, and cannot guarantee you and your family the maximum safety levels. Conditions for accessibility of rides may be modified without prior notice (for example, in case of bad weather and/or due to technical reasons). Finally, to safeguard your health and wellbeing, please observe the Park internal rules and follow all instructions given by Gardaland Staff. The key and the pictograms next to the attractions will aid you to find your way during your visit to the Park.

Attention: for safety reasons, those Guests with reduced mobility, those who are visually impaired or blind, and those with cognitive disability must be accompanied by an adult.

ENJOY YOUR DAY!

ACCESSIBILITY PICTOGRAMS

 Ride not accessible to Guests with heart and hypertension problems.

 Ride with complex and long evacuation phases in case of stop due to technical reasons.

 Guests with epilepsy, photosensitivity and who suffer from claustrophobia: pay utmost attention to the rides with this symbol.

 Ride accesible to guide dogs.

ATTENTION:

The path that leads to the rides may require going up/down steps and overcoming other obstacles, also in conditions of shadow, poor visibility, intermittent lights, and in the presence of background music and noise. It is essential to successfully complete all the safety procedures before access. In order to access the rides, the presence of an accompanying adult is therefore required. Such person must be able to accompany the guest during all the ascending and descending phases.

GUIDE DOGS:

For safety reasons, guide dogs may not accompany Guests in the rides. They must remain outside the ride, except for the ones with the symbol  and they must be left under the charge of the accompanying person or another member of the group.
